

Durable Power of Attorney

Carefully read any Power of Attorney (POA) before you sign the document. You should consult your own attorney regarding its purpose or legal rights that are affected by the grant of such power to another person. Your particular circumstances may indicate the need for granting either broader or more restrictive rights than are provided for in this document. If you do not understand any provisions or language in this form or have any questions, you should consult your own attorney. BY SIGNING THIS FORM, YOU ARE ACKNOWLEDGING THAT YOU UNDERSTAND THE CONTENT AND INFORMATION PROVIDED.

Notice and Information

This document is being provided for your convenience to use only with your Navy Federal Credit Union (NFCU) accounts. Nothing in this document should be construed as providing you with any legal advice. By this NFCU POA, you are giving another person you designate (your Attorney-in-Fact (AIF) or agent) broad powers to handle your finances and personal property with NFCU, which may include powers to encumber, sell, or otherwise dispose of any property held at NFCU without any advance notice to you or approval by you. THE ACTIONS GRANTED UNDER THIS POA ARE EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY, ARE DURABLE, AND WILL REMAIN IN EFFECT EVEN IF YOU BECOME DISABLED OR INCAPACITATED. It is important that you designate someone as your AIF that you trust with your assets and financial information.

If you wish to revoke or stop your AIF from acting, you must revoke this POA and, if desired, complete a new POA. You have the right to revoke this POA form at any time by destroying it and by signing a written and dated statement expressing your intent to revoke this document. YOU MUST INFORM NAVY FEDERAL OF THE REVOCATION AS NAVY FEDERAL CAN PERMIT TRANSACTIONS TO OCCUR PURSUANT TO THIS POA UNTIL NAVY FEDERAL IS NOTIFIED OF THE REVOCATION. A verbal notice of revocation is permitted, but you must confirm the revocation with a written notice to NFCU. You should also notify your AIF and anyone you provided a copy of the POA to, that it has been revoked. YOU CAN ONLY HAVE ONE NAVY FEDERAL POA IN EFFECT AT ANY GIVEN TIME. If you execute and submit a subsequent NFCU POA, then you agree that by doing so, you have revoked any prior NFCU POA so that only the latest one is in effect. Please note that if you subsequently execute a non-NFCU POA that revokes all previous or prior POAs and that non-NFCU POA is submitted to NFCU, then that language will also revoke this NFCU POA.

This document does not authorize anyone to make medical or other health care decisions for you. If you have other assets or specialized business matters outside of NFCU, this document does not address any of those assets or matters. You will need to seek advice from your own attorney in order to address those assets or matters. This POA shall be governed by the laws of the state in which it was executed without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of law thereof.

NOTE: Please confirm the form used meets proper execution/signature requirements, as additional execution requirements exist for certain, but not all, states. Use of the wrong form may cause your submission to be declined for validity. For example, if you opt to execute (sign) a Navy Federal POA form and you are in the state of New Hampshire, the NFCU 94NH is the correct form to use.

Military Power of Attorney (if applicable)

PREAMBLE: This is a MILITARY POWER OF ATTORNEY prepared pursuant to Title 10, United States Code, §1044b, and executed by a person authorized to receive legal assistance from the military services. Federal law exempts this power of attorney from any requirement of form, substance, formality, or recording that is prescribed for powers of attorney by the laws of a state, the District of Columbia, or a territory, commonwealth, or possession of the United States. Federal law specifies that this power of attorney shall be given the same legal effect as a power of attorney prepared and executed in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction where it is presented.

AGENT'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Note: The acknowledgment by the agent need not be signed when the durable power of attorney is executed as long as it is executed prior to the agent exercising the power granted under the durable power of attorney.

I, _____, have read the attached power of attorney and am the person identified as the Agent for the Principal. I hereby acknowledge that when I act as Agent or “attorney in fact,” I am given power under this Durable Power of Attorney to make decisions about money, property, or both belonging to the Principal, and to spend the Principal’s money, property, or both on the Principal’s behalf, in accordance with the terms of this Durable Power of Attorney. This Durable Power of Attorney is valid only if the Principal is of sound mind when the Principal signs it. When acting in the capacity of Agent, I am under a duty (called a “fiduciary duty”) to observe the standards observed by a prudent person, which means the use of those powers that is reasonable in view of the interests of the Principal and in view of the way in which a person of ordinary judgment would act in carrying out that person’s own affairs. If the exercise of my acts is called into question, the burden will be upon me to prove that I acted under the standards of a fiduciary. As the Agent, I am not entitled to use the money or property for my own benefit or to make gifts to myself or others unless the Durable Power of Attorney specifically gives me the authority to do so. As the Agent, my authority under this Durable Power of Attorney will end when the Principal dies and I will not have authority to manage or dispose of any property or administer the estate unless I am authorized to do so by a New Hampshire Probate Court. If I violate my fiduciary duty under this Durable Power of Attorney, I may be liable for damages and may be subject to criminal prosecution. If there is anything about this Durable Power of Attorney, or my duties under it, that I do not understand, I understand that I should seek professional advice.

As the Agent, I am not entitled to use the money or property for my own benefit or to make gifts to myself or others unless the Durable Power of Attorney specifically gives me the authority to do so. As the Agent, my authority under this Durable Power of Attorney will end when the Principal dies and I will not have authority to manage or dispose of any property or administer the estate unless I am authorized to do so by a New Hampshire Probate Court. If I violate my fiduciary duty under this Durable Power of Attorney, I may be liable for damages and may be subject to criminal prosecution. If there is anything about this Durable Power of Attorney, or my duties under it, that I do not understand, I understand that I should seek professional advice.

Frequently Asked Questions About the Navy Federal Durable Power of Attorney Form

What is a POA?

A Power of Attorney (POA) is a document signed by one person, known as the Principal, authorizing another person to act as an Attorney-in-Fact (AIF) on his or her behalf. Examples of Navy Federal Members who wish to use a POA may include those on Active Duty, preparing for deployment, or physically incapacitated, or any adult Member who wants to have someone with the ability to take actions for them. They may appoint a family member or trusted individual to care for their finances. If you have any further questions about this Navy Federal POA, you should contact an attorney.

How long is this POA valid?

This POA will remain in effect until any one of the following situations occurs:

- The expiration date, if one is specified on the POA;
- The POA is properly revoked or terminated;
- The Principal is deceased; or
- The POA is terminated by court order, such as the appointment of a Guardian/Custodian/Conservator.

How do I revoke this POA?

This document may be revoked by you at any time. However, the AIF's authority will only end once Navy Federal is properly notified of the revocation. To revoke this document, please fill out the POA Letter of Revocation available at any Navy Federal branch location or online at navyfederal.org and follow the instructions listed on the revocation form (NFCU Form 116). Once revoked or terminated, the same POA cannot be reinstated or used again; a new POA must be completed to authorize an AIF to take actions on your behalf.

Can I use this POA with other financial institutions?

No, this document is only valid for business with Navy Federal.

Can I use this POA for any type of transaction?

This POA can be used for most transactions with Navy Federal. This POA may not cover all situations—in some cases, a separate POA may be required for real estate transactions or items held in a trust. If you have further questions regarding this document, you should contact an attorney.

Can I use this POA with NFCU subsidiaries?

No, this document cannot be used for Navy Federal Financial Group (NFFG), Navy Federal Brokerage Services (NFBS), or Navy Federal Asset Management (NFAM) business or services. A separate POA will need to be signed by you for your specific transactions with these entities.

Does this POA need to be notarized?

Yes, this POA must be notarized to be valid. Virginia law applies; however, due to various state laws, we require two (2) unrelated and disinterested individuals who must be at least 18 years old to witness your signature on this POA. As a courtesy to our Members, Navy Federal offers free notary services at many of our branches. This POA can also be signed with a Military Acknowledgment before those persons authorized pursuant to 10 USC § 1044a.

What is a Durable POA?

A Durable POA means that the document remains effective even if you become incapacitated, disabled, or incompetent. Your AIF may still conduct financial business with Navy Federal even after you are unable to do so. The Navy Federal POA form is a Durable POA.

What is a Springing POA?

A Springing POA means that the document does not become effective until a specific condition occurs. The condition can be a variety of options, such as a specific date or that the POA is not effective until the Principal (you) becomes incapacitated, disabled, or incompetent. The Navy Federal POA form does not provide for it to be a Springing POA.

Frequently Asked Questions About the Navy Federal Durable Power of Attorney Form (continued)

Does my AIF have to be a Member of NFCU?

No. Your AIF generally can be anyone you choose, whether a Member or non-Member. However, you may not appoint yourself, third-party entities, or Navy Federal subsidiaries or affiliates.

What is a Co-AIF? Do I have to have one?

A Co-AIF is a second person you can designate and authorize to act on your behalf along with your original AIF. If you appoint a Co-AIF, then either your AIF or Co-AIF can act alone without the other's agreement or consent. No, you do not have to appoint a Co-AIF as that is optional.

What is a Successor AIF?

A Successor AIF is a secondary agent that can take the place of your original AIF. This happens if your original AIF no longer wishes to act as your agent, becomes incapacitated, disabled, or incompetent, or is deceased. Appointment of a Successor AIF is optional. If you appoint a Co-AIF, then your Successor AIF will only become effective if both the AIF and Co-AIF no longer wish to act or they are unable to act because they are incapacitated, disabled, incompetent, or deceased.

Can I limit the use of this POA?

Yes, you can limit the actions your AIF may perform within this POA.

Can I modify this POA?

No, you cannot make modifications to this POA after it is executed and notarized. To make changes, you must revoke this POA, provide notice to Navy Federal of the revocation, execute a new POA, have it notarized and witnessed, and submit it to Navy Federal.

Do I give up my rights by signing this POA?

No, you can always contact Navy Federal, and we will contact you if needed or required by law or regulation.

Can I use this POA for real estate transactions?

No, this POA cannot be accepted for certain real estate transactions, such as a mortgage application or settlement for purchase, refinance, or equity loans. However, it may be used to allow your AIF to obtain your mortgage information, to make payments, or for other requests for servicing of the loan. Because this document is only valid with Navy Federal, it is not valid with settlement agencies and/or other third parties involved in real estate transactions. You should contact an attorney if you need a POA specific to a real estate transaction.

Does this POA grant online access through Navy Federal Online Banking?

If you are already enrolled in Online Banking and you select "Yes" in Section K Online Banking, then your AIF will be permitted to sign the TRUSTED USER FOR NAVY FEDERAL ONLINE BANKING APPLICATION AND CONSENT (NFCU 652) in your stead.

If you are not enrolled in Online Banking at the time your AIF submits the TRUSTED USER FOR NAVY FEDERAL ONLINE BANKING APPLICATION AND CONSENT form, the AIF's request will be denied, and they will not be able to establish Trusted User Access.

At the time a Trusted User is added, they will by default have no access to existing accounts held in your name. You will need to sign into Online or Mobile Banking to designate access after they have been added as a Trusted User. You can manage your Trusted User's access via Online Banking: Sign in>click your name in top right corner>Manage Trusted Users>Select Edit for each Trusted User, or via Mobile Banking: Sign in>More>Settings>Trusted Users. This will allow you to provide access to your Trusted User(s) to certain accounts and Services as you deem necessary. Trusted Users will not have access to any future accounts unless you add access in Manage Trusted Users. If you are unable to designate access yourself, your AIF will need to contact Navy Federal to adjust their Trusted User Access.

Note: A POA expiration date or revocation does not generate a message to Navy Federal systems to cancel the Trusted User Access. If at any time you wish to remove Trusted User Access for your AIF, you will need to contact Navy Federal to make that request.
