We’re Here to Help You
Life is unpredictable, and circumstances can arise that make it difficult to keep up with mortgage payments. Our Mortgage Default Management Team specializes in member counseling. We understand, and we’re here with suggestions that can help put you back in control. If you’re concerned about making the mortgage payments, we may be able to develop a plan that helps you bring them up to date and possibly avoid the foreclosure process.

Get started by reviewing and completing the Borrower Response Package so we can determine whether or not you qualify for assistance. If you qualify, we’ll begin working on a resolution for any issues that affect your ability to make timely mortgage payments, whether your challenges are temporary or long-term.

Foreclosure Prevention Options
There are a variety of programs that may be available to help resolve the delinquency, avoid foreclosure and keep the home. You may be eligible to refinance or modify the mortgage loan so the terms and monthly payments are more manageable. Or, if a few payments have been missed, you may qualify for a temporary or permanent solution to help you get your finances back on track. Depending on your circumstances, staying in the home may not be possible; however, a short sale or deed-in-lieu of foreclosure may be a better choice than foreclosure.

The right option for you depends on your individual situation and the information you provide. See the table below for more information about possible alternatives to foreclosure.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>OPTION</th>
<th>OVERVIEW</th>
<th>BENEFIT</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Refinance</td>
<td>Receive a new loan with a lower interest rate or other favorable terms.</td>
<td>Lowers the monthly payment so it’s more affordable.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reinstatement</td>
<td>Pay the total amount owed in a lump-sum payment and by a specific date. This may follow a forbearance plan as described below.</td>
<td>Avoids foreclosure by bringing the mortgage current if you can show that you have funds that will become available at a specific date in the future.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Repayment Plan</td>
<td>Pay back the past-due payments along with the regular monthly payments over an extended period of time.</td>
<td>Gives you time to catch up on late payments without having to come up with a lump sum.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Forbearance Plan</td>
<td>Make reduced mortgage payments or no payments for a specific period of time.</td>
<td>Gives you time to improve your financial situation and get back on track.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Loan Modification</td>
<td>Modify the terms of the mortgage loan to make it more affordable after successfully making reduced payments during a trial period.</td>
<td>The payments or terms are more manageable as a permanent solution to a long-term or permanent hardship.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Short Sale</td>
<td>Sell the home and pay off a portion of the mortgage balance when the home is worth less than what is owed.</td>
<td>Allows one to transition out of the home without going through foreclosure. In some cases, relocation assistance may be available.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Deed-in-Lieu of Foreclosure</td>
<td>Transfer ownership of the property to Navy Federal.</td>
<td>This is useful when there are no other liens on the property. It also allows one to transition out of the home without going through foreclosure. In some cases, relocation assistance may be available.</td>

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Where can I find more information on foreclosure prevention?

   Please see the Foreclosure Prevention Options section on page 1 for more information. You can also contact Navy Federal at 1-888-503-7102, option 4, to speak with a specialist. Additional foreclosure prevention information is also available online at:

   - Navy Federal—navyfederal.org
   - Fannie Mae—KnowYourOptions.com
   - Freddie Mac—myhome.freddiemac.com/mortgage-help/contact.html
   - HUD—hud.gov/offices/hsg/sfh/hcc/fc/1-800-569-4287
   - CFPB—consumerfinance.gov
2. Will it cost money to get help?

There should never be a fee from the loan servicer or qualified counselor to obtain assistance or information about foreclosure prevention options. However, foreclosure prevention has become a target for scam artists. Be wary of companies or individuals offering to help you for a fee, and never send a mortgage payment to any company other than the one listed on the monthly mortgage statement or one designated to receive the payments under a state assistance program.

For more information on fraud, we suggest referring to the HUD website, hud.gov/offices/hsg/sfh/hcc/fc/, to locate an approved counselor near you. You can also review the Beware of Foreclosure Rescue Scams–Tips & Warning Signs section on page 5 for more information.

3. What happens once I’ve submitted the Borrower Response Package to Navy Federal?

Within five business days of receiving the Borrower Response Package, we’ll provide written notification indicating whether the application is complete or incomplete. If incomplete, the notice will provide a list of missing required information or documentation. We cannot guarantee that you’ll receive any (or a particular type of) borrower assistance at this time.

Within 30 days of receiving the completed Borrower Response Package, we’ll discuss which foreclosure alternatives, if any, are available to you and will also inform you of the next steps to accept our offer. If you submit the completed Borrower Response Package less than 37 days prior to a scheduled foreclosure sale date, we’ll work to process your request as quickly as possible; however, you may not receive a notice of incompleteness or a decision on your request prior to sale. It’s important that you submit your Borrower Response Package as soon as possible.

4. What happens to the mortgage while you’re evaluating the Borrower Response Package?

Borrowers remain obligated to make all mortgage payments as they’re due, even while we’re evaluating the types of assistance that may be available to you.

5. Will the foreclosure process begin if I don’t submit a completed Borrower Response Package for review?

If four monthly payments have been missed or there’s reason to believe the property is vacant or abandoned, we may refer the mortgage to foreclosure. If a complete package has been received and the account is being considered for a loan modification or other type of foreclosure alternative, the foreclosure will be placed on hold until an offer has been accepted or rejected.

6. Should I still contact you if the property has been referred to an attorney for foreclosure?

Yes. Please contact a specialist as soon as possible by calling 1-888-503-7102, option 4.

7. What if the property is already scheduled for a foreclosure sale?

If you submit a completed Borrower Response Package less than 37 calendar days before a scheduled foreclosure sale, we cannot guarantee that we’ll be able to evaluate your information and offer a foreclosure alternative (if any) in time to stop the foreclosure sale. Even if we’re able to approve a foreclosure alternative prior to a sale, a court with jurisdiction over the foreclosure proceeding (if any) or public official charged with carrying out the sale may not halt the scheduled sale.

8. Will the property be sold at a foreclosure sale if I accept a foreclosure alternative?

No. The property won’t be sold at a foreclosure sale once you accept a foreclosure alternative, such as a forbearance or repayment plan, and comply with all requirements.
9. Will my credit score be affected by the late payments or mortgage being in default?

The delinquency status of the loan will be reported to credit reporting agencies as well as your entry into a repayment plan, forbearance plan or trial period plan in accordance with the requirements of the Fair Credit Reporting Act and the Consumer Data Industry Association.

10. Will my credit score be affected if I accept a foreclosure alternative?

While the effect on your credit will depend on your individual credit history, credit scoring companies generally would consider your entry into a plan with reduced payments as increasing your credit risk. As a result, entering into a plan with reduced payments may adversely affect your credit score, particularly if the mortgage is current or you otherwise have a good credit score. However, bringing the loan current through a reinstatement, repayment plan, or loan modification and continuing to make timely payments may improve your credit score over time.

11. Is foreclosure prevention counseling available?

Yes. HUD-approved counselors are available to provide you with the information and assistance you may need to avoid foreclosure. You can use the online search tool at hud.gov/offices/hsg/sfh/hcc/fcl to find a counselor near you.

12. I've seen ads from companies offering to help me avoid foreclosure for a fee. Are these companies legitimate?

Foreclosure prevention has become a target for scam artists. We suggest referring to the HUD website, hud.gov/offices/hsg/sfh/hcc/fcl, to locate an approved counselor near you. You can also review the Beware of Foreclosure Rescue Scams—Tips & Warning Signs section below for more information.

Beware of Foreclosure Rescue Scams—Tips & Warning Signs

Scam artists are stealing millions of dollars from distressed homeowners by promising immediate relief from foreclosure or demanding cash for counseling services when HUD-approved counseling agencies provide the same services for FREE. If you receive an offer, information, or advice that sounds too good to be true, it probably is. Don’t let them take advantage of you, your situation, the house or your money.

Remember—help is FREE.

How to Spot a Scam—Beware of a company or person who:

- asks for a fee in advance to work with the lender to modify, refinance or reinstate the mortgage
- guarantees they can stop a foreclosure or get the loan modified
- advises you to stop paying the mortgage and pay them instead
- pressures you to sign over the deed to the home or sign any paperwork that you haven’t had a chance to read and don’t fully understand
- claims to offer “government-approved” or “official government” loan modifications
- asks you to release personal financial information online or over the phone, and you haven’t been working with this person and/or don’t know them

How to Report a Scam—Do one of the following:

- Go to preventloanscams.org and fill out the Loan Modification Scam Prevention Network’s (LMSPN) online complaint form and get more information on how to fight back. You also have the option to fax, email or mail the completed form. Just refer to the back of the form for details.*
- Call 1-888-995-HOPE(4673) and inform the counselor about your situation and belief that you’ve been involved in a scam.

*The Loan Modification Scam Prevention Network is a national coalition of governmental and private organizations led by Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, NeighborWorks America® and the Lawyers’ Committee for Civil Rights Under Law.
You must submit this Financial Statement along with ALL the supporting documents listed below in order for us to begin processing your request.

4. Rental/lease agreements (if applicable)
5. Divorce decree/property settlement agreement or court order for child support (if applicable)
6. Recorded Quit Claim Deed (if applicable)

Additional Required Documentation for Short Sale and Deed-in-Lieu Requests

9. Copy of the fully executed sales contract (short sale only)
10. Listing agreement
11. Estimate Settlement Sheet–HUD 1/Closing Disclosure (short sale only)
12. Notarized Authorization to Release Mortgage Loan Information form

Note: Additional documentation may be required for program approval. You may also be required to pay a BPO/appraisal fee.

You can fax the required documents to 703-255-7947. Please be sure to include a copy of this page in your fax. If you have any questions, please call a specialist at 1-888-503-7102, option 4, between 8:00 am and 6:30 pm, Eastern Time.

Once we have received the completed Borrower Response Package, please allow 5 to 30 calendar days for us to review your information and determine whether you qualify for assistance. We will contact you if we have any questions during the review process.

Our evaluation of the Borrower Response Package does not guarantee that you will receive borrower assistance or be eligible for a foreclosure alternative program. Borrowers are still responsible for making timely monthly payments in accordance with the contractual agreement with Navy Federal Credit Union. A review does not suspend pre-foreclosure practices (e.g., phone calls, credit reporting, letters, payment responsibility).

As required by law, you are hereby notified that we may report information about the account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on the account may be reflected on your credit report.

If approved for a trial period plan or a modification on a first lien mortgage that is not currently escrowed, establishment of an escrow account is required and any prior waiver is revoked.

   a Return Transcript, which includes most of the line items of a tax return as filed with the IRS.    b Account Transcript, which contains information on the financial status of the account, such as payments made on the account, penalty assessments, and adjustments made by you or the IRS after the return was filed. Return information is limited to items such as tax liability and estimated tax payments. Account transcripts are available for most returns. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days .

   c Record of Account, which provides the most detailed information as it is a combination of the Return Transcript and the Account Transcript. Available for current year and 3 prior tax years. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days .

7 Verification of Nonfiling, which is proof from the IRS that you did not file a return for the year. Current year requests are only available after June 15th. There are no availability restrictions on prior year requests. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days .

8 Form W-2, Form 1099 series, Form 1098 series, or Form 5498 series transcript. The IRS can provide a transcript that includes data from these information returns. State or local information is not included with the Form W-2 information. The IRS may be able to provide this transcript information for up to 10 years. Information for the current year is generally not available until the year after it is filed with the IRS. For example, W-2 information for 2011, filed in 2012, will likely not be available from the IRS until 2013. If you need W-2 information for retirement purposes, you should contact the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days .

Caution: If you need a copy of Form W-2 or Form 1099, you should first contact the payer. To get a copy of the Form W-2 or Form 1099 filed with your return, you must use Form 4506 and request a copy of your return, which includes all attachments.
