(November 18, 2010) – Navy Federal Credit Union continues to expand its field of membership with the opening of its newest branch in Albuquerque, N.M. on Monday, Nov. 22 at 9 am. Located near Kirtland Air Force Base, the branch will serve more than 20,500 active duty Airmen, National Guard and reservists, contractors, retirees, and their families.

“As home to the Air Force Nuclear Weapons Center and its subordinate wings, Albuquerque is a viable and attractive area to live, vacation and conduct business—and will continue to be for many years to come,” said Patrick Miller, Navy Federal vice president of Branch Operations. “We’ve staffed the Albuquerque branch with an experienced team committed to delivering exceptional member service. We are excited to help members make the right decisions with their money and financial plans, including home financing.”

The full-service branch is located at 2600 San Pedro Drive in Albuquerque. Conveniently located in the Kirtland AFB community, the branch is across the street from Coronado Mall. Lobby hours of operation are Monday through Thursday 9 am to 5 pm, Friday 9 am to 6 pm and Saturday 9 am to 1 pm. The Albuquerque branch has one on-site ATM.

“This new branch reflects our continued commitment to serve all branches of the military, with convenient locations for busy members,” said Dordane Nasser, branch manager. “We look forward to serving members and becoming part of the Bernalillo County community.”

Navy Federal plans to continue to build branches in strategic, vibrant areas. Since 2008, the credit union has welcomed 150,000 Air Force and Army personnel, as well as Department of Defense civilians, as its field of membership has grown.
