Stand-alone branch offers greater visibility to members.

VIENNA, Va. (Dec. 9, 2011) – Navy Federal Credit Union is relocating its branch at S.E. Cabot Drive to 32885 State Route 20 in Oak Harbor, Wash., on Monday, Dec. 12. Located on Oak Harbor's main thoroughfare, the branch is within close proximity to Naval Air Station Whidbey Island, offering members greater convenience.

"The original branch opened in 1998 and was enlarged in 2004," said Patrick Miller, vice president, Branch Operations. "This new location was chosen with member convenience, future growth and efficiency in mind. We are excited about this move and the opportunities it will bring to our new and existing members who reside and work in Island County."

Outfitted with the latest banking conveniences, the 4,800 square foot facility will include four teller stations, two drive-thru lanes, one walk-up ATM and one drive-up ATM. Just in time for holiday shoppers, the branch has a simple to use kiosk to count loose change.

"I encourage members to come in and speak with our team about their financial needs," adds Dawn Shumate, branch manager. "We've got excellent rates on 30-year fixed mortgages and auto loans."
