FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Navy Federal Receives Training Award

Training magazine recognizes Navy Federal for third consecutive year.

VIENNA, Va. (March 29, 2011) – For the third straight year, Navy Federal Credit Union has been named to Training magazine’s “Training Top 125” list of outstanding organizations. Ranked 43rd, Navy Federal placed higher in 2010 than in 2009 and 2008 (66th and 78th) respectively.

“Receiving this award for the third consecutive year reinforces our belief that a well-designed training program can provide measurable results to attract, develop and retain employees,” said Louise Foreman, Navy Federal’s executive vice president, Human Resources. “Navy Federal survives – and thrives – because of the capabilities and performance of its employees. We create a work environment where employees can strengthen their skill sets and deliver exceptional service to our members.”

Each Top 125 company was measured on both quantitative and qualitative data, on factors such as demonstrable results, training tied to business objectives, employee turnover and retention, leadership, development, tuition assistance, training technology and infrastructure.
