Navy Federal Stages Fort Bragg Movie Night Under the Stars A Free, Family-Friendly Event

Vienna, Va. (September 25, 2012) – Navy Federal Credit Union is proud to sponsor Family Movie Night at the Airborne & Special Operations Museum, 100 Bragg Boulevard, Fayetteville, NC 28301, beginning at 5:00 p.m. on October 6th. All area families are invited to come and kick-off the evening with food, games, giveaways and prizes at 5:00 p.m. before settling in under the stars to watch Captain America: The First Avenger (rated PG-13) from 7:10-9:15 p.m. Admission to this event is absolutely free and open to the public.

“We’re excited to meet all of our neighbors in Fayetteville,” says Vivian Scott, Navy Federal’s Fayetteville branch manager. “We strive to be actively involved in the community we serve, and this event is great way to unwind and get to know each other.”

Moviegoers are welcome to bring a blanket and small lawn chairs for enjoying the movie. Other activities include:

- Bouncy house
- Balloon artist
- Inflatable rock climbing obstacle course with a rock climbing slide
- 95.7 WKML-FM will be broadcasting live

This event is free and open to the public; food and beverages will be offered for sale. Navy Federal strives to accommodate the needs of all attendees. If you have special needs or questions about ADA accommodations, please contact Misti Yarborough at 770-395-7900, ext. 221.
