Navy Federal Celebrates Grand Opening of New El Paso Branch with Ceremony and Donation

Branch Makes Special Offers to Members in Honor of Opening

Vienna, Va. (September 19, 2013) – Navy Federal Credit Union celebrated today the grand opening of its newest branch location in El Paso, Texas. The celebration included a $1,000 donation to the Red Cross, a presentation by the UTEP ROTC Color Guard, a ribbon cutting ceremony, and refreshments and food served throughout the day. Also in honor of the opening, the branch is making special offers to current and new members.

“After 80 years of service to our members, we continue to grow in order to better serve them,” said Louie Mendoza, El Paso branch manager. “We have roughly 14,500 members in the El Paso area, and this new location will be right in their backyard. Since it’s important to us to contribute to the local community, we are pleased to make a donation to the Red Cross in recognition of their service to our nation’s armed forces.”

The Navy Federal El Paso team will participate in various local community activities, including the Amigo Airsho and Red Cross events. The new branch is located at 1355 George Dieter Dr., El Paso, TX 79936. It features a walk-up ATM and a coin machine. Branch hours are Monday – Friday, 9 a.m. – 5 p.m., and Saturday 9:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.
