Navy Federal Celebrates Grand Opening of New Clarksville Branch with Donation to AUSA

Clarksville, Tenn. (August 29, 2013) – Navy Federal Credit Union opened its newest branch yesterday in Clarksville, Tennessee, with a grand opening celebration that gave special acknowledgment to the Association of the United States Army (AUSA). Phil Harpel, the former president of the AUSA Tennessee – Kentucky Chapter, was present on the organization’s behalf to receive a $1,000 donation from Navy Federal. The celebration included a ribbon-cutting ceremony, remarks from Navy Federal and AUSA leadership, and special member giveaways and offers. Members of the Navy Recruiting Station, Clarksville, were also in attendance to honor the occasion.

“After 80 years of service to our members, we continue to look for ways to better serve them,” said Josh Lill, branch manager of the Tiny Town Road Branch. “We have roughly 14,000 members in the Clarksville area, and this new location will be right in their backyard. And since it’s important to us to be an integral part of our community, we were pleased to make a donation to AUSA in recognition of all their service.”

The grand opening featured special member offers that will last 90 days from the date of the branch’s initial opening. Some of these deals include a $50 cash bonus for referring family and friends for new membership, a $100 Navy Federal Visa® Prepaid Card when opening an Active Duty Checking® account with Direct Deposit, and $300 cash back when members bring an existing auto loan from another lender to Navy Federal.

The new branch is located at 1488 Tiny Town Road, Suite B2, in Clarksville. The branch features a walk-up ATM and a coin machine inside the branch. Lobby hours are Monday – Friday, 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. and Saturday, 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.
