Navy Federal’s Commitment to Military Job Seekers Earns Third Consecutive Win with CivilianJobs.com as a 2013 Most Valuable Employers (MVE) for Military®

MVEs are recognized in the month of May to help honor Armed Forces Day, May 18, 2013.

Vienna, Va., May 2, 2013 – Navy Federal Credit Union is one of the Most Valuable Employers (MVE) for Military by CivilianJobs.com for the third consecutive year. The worldwide credit union, serving the U.S. armed forces and their families, was selected for its commitment to helping military-experienced job seekers and veterans acclimate to the civilian workforce.

“Service is at the core of Navy Federal—who better to provide that service than the men and women who know the challenges that our members face daily,” commented Louise Foreman, executive vice president, Navy Federal Credit Union. “Our employees come from all branches of the military, and we take pride in assisting their transition to civilian life.”

The credit union reports that more than 76 percent of its workforce indicated that they have some type of military affiliation— whether through an active-duty or retired spouse or family member, or through their own current or previous military service.

“Military job seekers still need to know where to look,” said Sandra (Sandy) Morris, CEO, Bradley-Morris, Inc., parent company of CivilianJobs.com. “In keeping with CivilianJobs.com’s mission to connect America’s military with civilian careers, we hope that The Most Valuable Employers for Military recognition will help shorten the distance between veterans and jobs.”

The 2013 Most Valuable Employers (MVE) for Military was open to all U.S.-based companies. The winners were selected based on surveys in which employers outlined their recruiting, training and retention plans that best serve military service members and veterans. In addition to being recognized in the May issue of Military Transition News, CivilianJobs.com's worldwide military base newspaper, winning employers will also be displayed on the CivilianJobs.com web site.
