#ChickfilaSalutes Military Families with Free Meal at 4th Annual Military Appreciation Night on May 21

Event Honors Military Personnel, Family Members

WHAT:

All 54 Chick-fil-A® restaurants in Southern California will honor the region's military personnel and their families with Military Appreciation Night on Wednesday, May 21 from 4 to 7 p.m. All active military personnel and those who have honorably served are invited, along with their immediate family members, to enjoy a free meal at a local Chick-fil-A restaurant.

Military Appreciation Night is presented by Navy Federal Credit Union in celebration of Military Appreciation Month. The event will include family-friendly activities and entertainment for guests at each Chick-fil-A restaurant.

The free Chick-fil-A meal offer is valid with a military ID or proof of service and is only available for dine-in customers. The offer includes a choice of the Original Chick-fil-A® Chicken Sandwich Meal, Chick-fil-A® Spicy Chicken Sandwich Meal or Chick-fil-A® Nuggets Kid's Meal (four-count).

This is the fourth year all Southern California Chick-fil-A Restaurants have hosted Military Appreciation Night. Since 2011, more than 50,000 meals have been provided to military service-members and their families. The annual event began at four Restaurants in San Diego and has since grown to all Southern California Restaurants, as well as other markets including Washington, D.C., Tampa, San Antonio and Austin.

“For the fourth year, Chick-fil-A is honored to host our military families at each of our locations throughout Southern California,” said Thomas Purtell, franchise Operator of Chick-fil-A at La Habra Marketplace. “We would like to take this opportunity to extend our gratitude to those who have served our nation, along with their families, in the simplest way we know how: with great food. Thank you for your service and dedication to our nation.”

“Navy Federal takes pride in making a difference in the communities where we serve,” said Jeanette Mack, manager, corporate communications at Navy Federal Credit Union. “We're honored to commemorate Military Appreciation Month with Chick-fil-A, and to have the opportunity to give back to our nation's heroes for the sacrifices they make for us.”
