Navy Federal Credit Union again recognized as one of FORTUNE's "100 Best Companies to Work For"

VIENNA, Va. (March 5, 2015) – Navy Federal Credit Union announced today that it has once again been named to FORTUNE Magazine's 2015 "100 Best Companies to Work For[®]" list. This represents the Navy Federal's fifth time being recognized, having first earned a spot in 2008. The credit union, serving all Department of Defense and Coast Guard active duty, civilian and contractor personnel and their families, jumped 24 spots from 2014 and remains the only credit union to have ever appeared on the list.

"It's always an honor to be recognized in this way," said Navy Federal Credit Union President/CEO, Cutler Dawson. "Our employees are passionate about our mission to serve military families, so it's important they feel well taken care of as they do their jobs every day. As an employer it's our responsibility to do what's right by them—in turn they go above and beyond for our members. It's a formula that absolutely works."

Creators of the methodology behind the list, Great Place to Work[®] discovered that employees believe they work for great organizations when they consistently trust the people they work for, enjoy the people they work with, and have pride in what they do. A Navy Federal employee describes it by saying, "The commitment of the employees to the mission of serving the military personnel and their families creates an amazing culture. To have the opportunity to work for an organization that is focused on providing financial products and services, as well as financial education, to our members is an honor and privilege."

In addition to the FORTUNE 100 list, Navy Federal has also received recognition for their continued efforts in creating a better workplace for employees. Such accolades include Most Valuable Employers for Military; Learning 100! Award for 2014; Association for Talent Development 2014 Best Award; and Training magazine's Top 125 for 2014.
