Navy Federal Reaches Highest Ever Ranking of 6 Years on Fortune's 100 Best Companies to Work For® List

VIENNA, VA. (March 3, 2016) – Vienna-based Navy Federal Credit Union has again been named to Fortune's 100 Best Companies to Work For list in 2016. The credit union, serving the armed forces and their families, is ranked No. 44 on this elite list.

"Navy Federal is a great place to work. Our team members are terrific and everyone strives to make our work environment the best possible," said Cutler Dawson, President/CEO of Navy Federal. "It's simple—take good care of our employees, and they take good care of our members."

In recognizing the credit union, Fortune noted 95 percent of Navy Federal employees said they felt proud to tell others where they worked. "At Navy Federal, the strength and resilience of our corporate culture positively influences the work we do each day and contributes to the ability of our employees to make differences in our members' lives. That's something of which we are all very proud," Dawson added.

This is the sixth year the credit union has been recognized, having first earned a spot in 2008, and its fifth consecutive year.
