Navy Federal Offering Assistance to Members Affected by Hurricane Harvey

VIENNA, Va. (Tuesday, August 30) – Navy Federal Credit Union is reminding its members to reach out for emergency assistance in the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey. Any Navy Federal members living in a FEMA-declared disaster area are eligible for special loan products including increased line-of-credit limits, credit card assistance and payment deferment on existing loans.

“Disaster recovery often comes with unexpected financial challenges,” said Richard Morris, senior vice president of real estate lending at Navy Federal. “We’re ready to help our members face those challenges and move forward in the recovery process.”

Navy Federal’s Emergency Assistance includes:

- Emergency Relief Loans up to $15,000 at 6% APR for up to 60 months
- 0% intro APR on balance transfers and purchases for 12 months on existing Navy Federal Credit Cards
- 0% intro APR on purchases for 12 months for members who open a Navy Federal Platinum Card
- Payment deferment on existing loans
- Free express delivery of credit cards, debit cards and checks

To apply for the special credit card options, members must call 1-888-842-6328 or speak with a branch representative for more details. Members have the option of having their new credit card delivered to their address of choice, or to the closest Navy Federal branch.

“We encourage members to contact us as soon as possible for relief,” said Morris. “Don’t wait. Our team is standing by to help.”

If you are a member and need assistance, please call 1-888-842-6328— Representatives are available 24/7. For more information, visit Navy Federal’s Emergency Assistance page for more details.
