Navy Federal Credit Union Extends Special Savings Offer

VIENNA, Va. (Wednesday, March 7, 2018) – Today Navy Federal Credit Union announced it will be extending its current certificate special. The Special 15 Month Certificate comes with a 2.25 percent Annual Percentage Yield, one of the best rates in the market given the term and low minimum balance of just $50.

“Helping members save for their goals, whether that’s buying a home, a car or saving for retirement, is important to us,” said Joan Cox, senior vice president of savings products at Navy Federal. “Our members loved this special, and that’s why we’re extending the offer. Now, more members can take advantage of the great rate and meet their savings goals.”

Navy Federal’s savings products are ideal for all types of savers, with competitive rates, low minimum balance requirements and the ability to make recurring contributions and customizable account names. Members can purchase the Special 15 Month Certificate, or any of the credit union’s savings offers online, over the phone or in branches.

“Making sure our members are comfortable and confident with saving and budgeting is what we do,” said Cox. “Between this special and our standing savings offers, members can continue to come to Navy Federal for market leading rates and excellent service.”
