Navy Federal Named a Best Place to Work in IT for Fourth Year

VIENNA, Va. (June 18, 2018) –Navy Federal Credit Union today was named a Computerworld 2018 Best Places to Work in IT. The credit union ranks No. 23 among 59 large organizations, and the only credit union on the list. This marks the fourth consecutive year that Navy Federal has been recognized.

Navy Federal's IT professionals provide support for the credit union's 17,000 employees and 7.8 million members.

“At Navy Federal, it's our mission to provide exceptional member service through our people and our technology,” said Bill Hills, executive vice president and chief information officer. “We work hard to provide our employees with an environment filled with opportunity to learn and develop in the information technology field. The more they are able to grow in this rapidly evolving field, the better service we can provide our members.”

Computerworld compiles that Best Places to Work in IT list based on a questionnaire regarding company offerings in categories such as benefits, career development, training and retention. Additionally, IT professionals are surveyed and their responses are factored into determining the rankings.

In 2018, Navy Federal is placing an emphasis on growing its team in the information services department, with many career opportunities available at the various campus locations, including Pensacola, Fla. and its headquarters in Vienna.
